Child 1: John Joseph Cash and Charlotte Elizabeth Steele Todd

John Joseph was born on 9th September 1861 at Stony Creek Oberon. There is a NSW BDM record for a Male Cash # 5010/1861 born to Thomas and Mary A in District of Bathurst. This is likely to be John Joseph. He married Charlotte Elizabeth Steele Todd on 15th December 1890 at O'Connell.

The Todds

Charlotte was the daughter of David Smith TODD and Lettisha/Letitia Mary Connelly. She was the second child and eldest daughter born on 17th April 1868 at Essington Oberon. David was a free settler having been born in 1841 at Lilford, East Northamptonshire Borough, Northamptonshire, England the son of William Lewin Todd and Charlotte Lovell. David was baptised on 26th Sept 1841 at Warmington Northampton UK. David had arrived in Australia on the ship 'John Bright' in June 1849. He was 7 years old and accompanied his parents and siblings Mary Ann and Lewin. They were assisted passengers. His father was an engineer according to the ships indent.

Letitia Connelly sourced from family tree chdesign 28783.

The Connelly's

Lettisha had been born in Belfast County Down Ireland in 1844 although her immigration papers state 1846. She emigrated on the ship 'Annie Wilson' in 1862 with her mother Elizabeth Steele from Holywood Belfast and her siblings Anne Jane [1838-1872]; Elizabeth Tudor Connelly [1842-1901]; Mary Douglas Connelly [1846-1902]; George Porteous Connelly [1849-1907] a family tree notes he was a shoemaker. There is a younger sibling William John Steele Connelly who had been born in Holywood Belfast<sup>1</sup> on 25th Sept 1853 according to family trees and had died on 6th May 1854 in Holywood. Her brother Luke Connelly had also died young according to family trees having been born on 30th Nov 1840 and died in Holywood on 10th July 1854. Some trees have another sibling Martha born 1837 and died young.<sup>2</sup> Letitia's father George Porteous Connelly had died on 12th February 1854 in Holywood Belfast. Geneanet has his names as George Parkes Porteous Connelly having been born on 16th Sept 1808 in Holywood Belfast to Archibald Connelly and Ann Jane Porteous. Poor Elizabeth had lost her husband and 2 sons within months. Their depositor was Luke 'Farrell' Connelly was George's brother and the family had obtained a reference for their emigration from the protestant Minister of the Church of Holywood. This indicates they were Irish protestants. If family trees are correct George's grandfather was Archibald Connelly and he was born in Southend Argyll, Scotland between 1758-1768 and had died in Holywood Belfast in 1795. Luke had deposited funds in 1861 so it took a little while for the family to sail. Luke had unfortunately died in 1862 in Penrith NSW. Elizabeth Connelly mum of Letitia is listed as a house servant on shipping indents.

There is an interesting story in a family tree from Elizabeth Steele:

"Elizabeth Steele Connelly of Sydney, New South Wales, Australia, wrote her brother John Steele, Jr. of Toquerville, Utah, USA on 2 September 1873 about the Connells: "my husband [George Porteous Connelly] grand[father] Archey Connelly name Archey Conneila he was capten of a manaware ship that Come in to the Belfast before the rebellian of ireland and his wife was ichord and two sunes Arch and Jorge"

This tells us that Archibald Snr was a ships captain of a man-o-war ship. The Irish Rebellion occurred in 1798 <https://www.amrevmuseum.org/virtualexhibits/cost-of-revolution/pages/part-4-irish-revolution> and

An online family history search site for Archibald Connelly <https://irelandxo.com/ireland/down/hollywood-down/message-board/connelly> shows us how confusing it can get when you have 2 or 3 generations of Archibald Connelly's from the same town and family. I write this here to show some of the rabbit holes genealogists go down!

The site shows us that from Griffiths Valuation 1861 Archibald Connelly of Hollywood was a tenant and rented a bakery. An Archibald of Hollywood died in 1862. Below is the Griffiths Valuation and some sites have it as 1864 not 1861. We will remain with 1861 to honour Julie's research above.

This site left shows us there was an Archibald Connelly painter in Hollywood in 1861 https://www.lennonwylie.co.uk/PT\_EGHKpage601.htm. This Archibald had a son David and a daughter Jane according to the research. They concluded there was only 1 Archibald from Hollywood but we know there were a couple!

Archibald Connelly born 1758 in Scotland and died 1795 Hollywood- the grandfather Elizabeth references in her letter to her brother. His wife is unknown but one site has her as Nancy Farrell of Hollywood<sup>3</sup>. Archibald #1 had 2 sons Archey and Jorge or Archibald born 1778 in Hollywood and George 1783-1834. This Archibald who we will call # 2 married Anne Jane Porteous. Did they have a son called Archibald? There is an Archibald Connelly baptised in Dublin in 1815 and born to Archibald and Ann Connelly but is he the same family? Some family trees have him listed against the Hollywood family.

The 1852 grocer and painter has to be Archibald #2 or does it, he would be 74 years of age. They have records also for 1846 of the same Archibald. The research site states that an Archibald is still a tenant on the land identified in Griffiths Valuation in 1876.

Let's see if Jane and David can tell us anything? Jane's death certificate leads us to her birth date of around 1846 so Archibald #2 is unlikely to be her dad. Archibald #3 fits this bill if he exists. This certificate also tells us Jane was a spinster and a school mistress but does not link her to a father. The 1901 and 1911 census links Jane and

Elizabeth Steele

Let's have a closer look at Elizabeth Steele's story. She was born on 28th February 1818 in Holywood Belfast to John Steele [1763-1841] and Ann /Nancy Kennedy. We can go back further and say her maternal grandparents were William Kennedy [1757-1818] and Jean McIlvine [1757-1827] of Holywood and her great grandparents John Kennedy born 1727 Holywood and Elizabeth Martin born 1737 Holywood. Elizabeth had a brother John Steele Jnr born in Holywood on 21st March 1821 and indeed emigrated to USA and a sister Jane born 30th Sept 1819 again in Holywood. She married George Parkes Porteous Connelly on 3rd November 1835 in Holywood. They produced 7 children listed above.

1854 was not kind to Elizabeth with the loss of her husband and 2 sons Luke and William. She must have struggled as a single mother in Belfast with 5 young children. We do not know if her parents were of any means.

What was Belfast like at this time?

As Ireland's only industrialised large town, Victorian Belfast was, for much of the period, outwardly prosperous and the town displayed a noticeable sense of civic pride, which in 1842 led the English novelist William Makepeace Thackeray to remark that Belfast appeared 'hearty, thriving and prosperous as if it had money in its pocket and roast beef for dinner.' However, like similar British industrial towns, Belfast had a much less refined underbelly and an urban infrastructure that was largely unfit to cope with a rapidly growing population.

Adjoining many of its main thoroughfares was a network of confined backstreets, entries, courtyards and alleyways, where scenes of deprivation, overcrowding, and poor sanitation could readily be found. Such conditions saw illnesses like fever, dysentery, tuberculosis and many others regularly break out in epidemic proportions; and in February 1832, following months of distressing reports from Europe, Asiatic cholera, a new contagion unfamiliar in most of world outside areas of the Indian subcontinent where it had originated made its first appearance in Belfast. Three further cholera epidemics would follow in 1848-49, 1854 and 1866, themselves part of deadly pandemics that swept the globe, all of them influential in altering the world's public health landscape.....But when cholera did return to Belfast in 1854 all the town's municipal bodies made a concerted effort to mitigate its impact. Despite this, Belfast was one of the worst affected large Irish towns. The epidemic began in March 1854 with cases reported in Smithfield and in Washington Street and came to an end in October/ November. Accurate statistics are difficult to ascertain, but the Poor Law Commissioners recorded 1,871 cases and 677 deaths, (36% mortality). <https://epidemic-belfast.com/6-cholera-in-nineteenth-century-belfast/>

CHOLERA.
Hitherto the ravages of this dreadful disease have been in a chief degree confined to the London metropolis. Since our last publication the weekly returns of the Registrar-General have been of an opposite character—one gloomy in the extreme, the others giving every symptom of an abatement of the disease in London. From 847 three weeks ago, the mortality sprung in one week up to 1287, an increase of over 400 in a single week. The mortality the next week, ending on the 9th ult., showed a still more alarming increase, being 2050. But the number of deaths from cholera in the week ending on the 16th fell to 1549; and in the week ending the 23rd ult. the number of deaths was only 1284. From this reduction, and the very great change in the weather from extreme heat to an almost frosty atmosphere, it is confidently hoped that a rapid decrease may now be looked for.
In Liverpool the cholera has become epidemic, and in some days recently from 20 to 30th deaths have taken place there. It has taken a flight through several towns in the provinces, but has not manifested anything like the malignity with which it has attacked the inhabitants of the metropolis.
From Scotland we do not hear any alarming accounts of its progress.
The disease has made sad havoc in the north of Ireland, particularly in Belfast; but recent accounts speak of a decrease in the mortality. It has shown itself at Finglas, a small village in the suburbs of Dublin, but not in any great force; and recent accounts speak of its total disappearance from that quarter.—Home News, Oct. 3.

Hobart Courier Saturday 9th Dec 1854

It is a fair conclusion to make that Elizabeth lost her husband and sons to Cholera. The epidemic began in March George died in the February so was he an early case or died from something else? William in May and Luke in July in the middle of the outbreak. The family would have survived the Irish Famine of 1845-1849.

However, in the 1840s, a plant infection — potato blight, caused by the fungus Phytophthora infestans — showed us how an environmental catastrophe in a vulnerable community can profoundly affect human history. Before the visitation of potato blight, the population of Ireland was the most rapidly growing in Europe in the early 1840s. Yet between 1845 and 1850, Ireland's population fell by over one-third — with 3 million people disappearing from the island — half through death and half through emigration. <https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/PMC6735970/>

Elizabeth and her surviving children would be one of those who emigrated. Why Australia? We know that her brother in law Luke Farrell Connelly [1810-1862] had emigrated before 1851 to Australia as he had married Margaret Josephine McGhee on 10th Feb 1851 in Sydney. To date no emigration records can be found for Luke. The depositor record shows us that Luke was the person who sponsored Elizabeth's emigration and he paid the deposit for the family in 1861.

IMMIGRANTS BY THE ANNIE WILSON.—The ship Annie Wilson, 1118 tons, Captain Duckett, from Liverpool 31st December, with 425 assisted immigrants, arrived yesterday. She was placed in quarantine by the Health-officer in consequence of some cases of scarlet fever, and one of measles having occurred on the voyage. The first case of scarlet fever occurred on the 15th March, and there were two cases subsequently. A case of measles occurred on 2nd April. No death, however, has arisen from either of these diseases, and but one during the voyage—that of an aged person, from consumption. Amongst the immigrants by this vessel are 70 colliers for the Newcastle mines. They are not under an engagement to any one company, but will, we understand, be apportioned between the four companies, who were jointly engaged in subscribing the funds for the payment of their passages under the assisted immigration regulations. Dr. Alleyne has given the necessary sanitary orders for the cleaning of the clothes, &c., of the immigrants; and it is believed from present appearances, that the quarantine will have to be enforced for a few days only, when the healthy portion of the passengers will be brought up to Hyde Park Barracks, the sick alone, if there should then be any, remaining behind.

[J. C. GLUE.]

The labour market has received an addition this week by the arrival of the Annie Wilson with upwards of 400 passengers. We don't know much about what Elizabeth did from 1862 but she died in Sydney at residence 142 Kent St on 1st October 1882. Her son in law David Smith Todd placed a funeral notice in the paper indicating Elizabeth would be buried at the Necropolis Rookwood Cemetery in Sydney. Her death certificate seems to indicate her son George was living with her at the time.

What happened to her children?

- Anne Jane married John Eastment in Bathurst 2 years after she arrived in 1864. They had a son Luke in 1870 and she died on 18th Nov 1872 at Bathurst aged 34 years. ? possible post natal death [BDM #3146]
- Elizabeth Tudor Connelly [1842-1901] <https://www.ancestry.com.au/genealogy/records/elizabeth-tudor-connelly-24-wh3kv>. She married Archibald Muir McMurtrie on 15th May 1866 at Scots Church Sydney. They had 11 children, 2 dying young. Her nephew Luke Eastment committed suicide at her house on 19th March 1894 after shooting Captain Donald. Elizabeth died 19th Jan 1901 at RPA Camperdown Hospital aged 59 yrs. Interestingly her parents are listed on her death certificate as John Steele Connelly and Elizabeth Gelston

THE ASSAILANT OF CAPTAIN DONALD COMMITS SUICIDE.—Yesterday afternoon a young man named Luke Eastment committed suicide under sensational circumstances at the residence of his aunt, Mrs. M'Murtrie, No. 132 Wilson-street, Darlington. Eastment had been in the employ of the Parramatta River Ferry Company, but on the afternoon of the 18th instant he was dismissed. The same night he travelled to Hunter's Hill in the boat by which Captain Donald, the manager of the company, travelled. After landing the captain noticed a man following him, but did not pay any attention to the circumstance. A few minutes later two shots were fired, and turning round Captain Donald saw the man, whom he recognised as Eastment, with a smoking revolver in his hand. Asked what he meant by his action, Eastment replied "I'll soon show you," and fired two more shots, but with no effect. Eastment then ran off. The next morning the matter was reported to the Ryde police, and Senior-constable Banks and Constable White traced Eastment to No. 132 Wilson-street, Darlington. They went there yesterday afternoon, but as soon as the man heard them ask for him he rushed upstairs. Directly afterwards a pistol-shot was heard, and on going to the bedroom the officers found him lying dead on the floor with a wound in his breast, immediately over the heart. By his side was a five-chambered revolver loaded in four chambers. The body was removed to the South Sydney Morgue.

A SENSATIONAL SUICIDE.—The City Coroner, Mr. J. C. Woods, J.P., held an inquest yesterday in the South Sydney Morgue on the body of Luke Eastment, the man who, to avoid arrest, shot himself on Monday afternoon while at the residence of his aunt, Elizabeth M'Murtrie, No. 132 Wilson-street, Newtown. Mrs. M'Murtrie deposed that the deceased was a single man, 26 years of age, and that he had been captain of one of the Parramatta River steamers. On Saturday last, after 11 p.m., he called at her house and asked to be permitted to stay the night. His request was acceded to, and he also stayed there on Sunday night. Senior-constable Banks said that on Saturday last he received information that Eastment had attempted to shoot Captain Donald, manager of the Parramatta River Steam Ferry Company. Witness, who had traced Eastment to Mrs. M'Murtrie's house, went there on Monday afternoon in company with Constable White. He knocked at the door, and on its being opened Eastment rushed to an upstairs bedroom and shot himself in the left breast. He was found lying on the bed with a revolver in his right hand. He gave two gasps, and expired. A post-mortem examination disclosed that the bullet had penetrated the heart and left lung. The jury returned a verdict of suicide. In a book which was found upon the deceased was a memorandum that he intended four bullets for Captain Donald and one for himself, and that he would not be taken alive.

- Mary Douglas Connelly [1846-1919] had 3 marriages. The first to George Wells [1842-1903] whom she divorced in 1902 after 37 years marriage. Her second husband was John Ennis who she married in 1909 in Waterloo Sydney and her third husband was Joseph Brooks who she married at Parramatta in 1915. Mary did not have any children. She died at 24 Denison St Newtown on 27th October 1919 of apoplexy aged 70 yrs. Interestingly her death certificate states that her father George Porteous Connelly was a medical practitioner. If this is correct could this explain his early death in February 1854 before cholera became an epidemic in March of that year? Thanks to Frances Nash for the records.

George Jnr was a bootmaker in Sydney. The 1900 Sands Director has his workshop in Balmain. He married Esther Louisa Crowley in Sydney on 8th May 1875 and they had 9 children with the names Porteous, Letitia, Jane Anne peppered in their names. Interestingly one of his children is Esther Louisa Gelston Connolly [1882-1961]. Gelston is the surname used on Mary Tudor's death certificate , could Elizabeth have partnered with a Mr Gelston hence the use of the name? George died young at the age of 57 years at his residence 71 Foucart St Rozelle on February 27th 1907. He too was buried at the Necropolis Rookwood Section F Row 6 where his sister is buried.

David was the eldest child and son of William Lewin Todd [ 1818-1874] and Charlotte Lovell. William and Charlotte had been married in Warmington Northamptonshire on 11th October 1840. William was 22 years of age having been born on 2nd Feb 1818 at Tansor in Northamptonshire. His Marriage certificate does not list a father.

It is very likely William was illegitimate given the record below:

Northamptonshire, England, CofE 1818

The indents on the ship bringing him to Australia and his grave records indicate he was born in Tansor in 1818 on 2nd August.

Charlotte's parents were Smith Lovell [1795-1867] a labourer and Mary Ann Deer [1795-1848]. She had been born in Warmington in 1819. Her paternal grandparents were Thomas Lovell [1758-1838] and Alice Ellis [1755-1840] of Buckinghamshire. Her paternal great grandparents were Thomas Lovell [1730-1782] and Elizabeth Pierce [born 1730] of Drayton Buckinghamshire. Her paternal great grandparents on the Ellis side were Francis and Sarah Ellis.

William and Charlotte emigrated to Australia on the ship 'John Bright' with their children David Smith, Mary Ann and Lewin in 1849. They arrived on the 8th June in Sydney. They went on to have one more child; Edwin [1850-1877]. Some family trees have Edwin born under a bullock Tray at Bogan River NSW. This is probable given that William was a carrier-see below reference. Charlotte died on 5th July 1868 at Stony Creek near Essington.

William remarried Ellen Gentle the widow of Edward Terry Wilson [1830-1869] in 1870 at Bathurst. They went on to have two more children: Caleb William [1871-1958] and Hester Louisa [1873-1946].

William died in Gladesville Asylum, Gladesville Hospital on 15th October 1874 and is buried in the Asylum cemetery. <https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/191591626/william-todd>. He was 55 years old. This was the same year Hamilton Murray [Mary Ann Smith's sister in laws father] was admitted to Gladesville Asylum. He had been admitted in the February and died in the May. It was one month after Hamilton died that William was admitted.

Reference to his death is recorded in a family tree:

*First settled at Obley, New South Wales between Molong & Yeoval. Was overseer on Sheep Station. Later became a carrier of supplies from Sydney via Bullock team. After 1870 William started having fits and had nervous breakdown. Was taken to Bathurst 26 May 1874 and committed to Gladesville Psychiatric Hospital on 9 June 1874. He died of a stroke there. I want to tease out the life of one of Willilam's daughters Mary Ann as it intrigues me that this might be the story about a Mary Ann and a McNab rather than it being Mary Ann Smith and a McNab.

Mary Ann Todd, David's sister married Peter McNab in 1870 at Bathurst. As mentioned on the front page on the Mary Ann Smith website page, Peter owned property around Essington. This Mary Ann and Peter went on to have 12 children. Their youngest was George Reuban McNab [1887-1976]. The McNabs were an Essington family. Mary Ann died on 12th December 1917 at Bathurst and is buried in Oberon Cemetery<sup>5</sup> with her husband who died on 19th June 1913 at Essington. The names of her ancestors are peppered through her childrens names- Lovell, Letitia, Archibald, Charlotte, Lewin.

Back to John Joseph Cash and Charlotte:

John Joseph shared the same name as his first cousin my Poppy John Joseph Smith however my Pop was born in 1880 so perhaps he was named after this John Joseph who would have been his first cousin. Having been born in September 1861 we can safely say Mary Ann was pregnant when she married Thomas Cash in the May of 1861.

John Joseph and Charlotte had 3 children:

1. Dora Letitia Mary Cash [1898-1967]. She married Walter A Bliss in 1924. She died 24th October 1967. They had 2 children Daphne and Douglas.

Child 2: Agnes Cash and Phillip Joseph Foran- the bushrangers?

Source: Dale Boyle

Phillip and Agnes with daughters

Agnes Cash was born on Christmas Day 25th December 1863 at Sewells Creek. Sewells Creek being the location of her great grandmother Frances Green Smith Sewell who had been deceased 10 years by the time Agnes arrived.

Agnes would have grown up on her families property at Stony Creek.

She married Phillip Joseph Foran at Rockley on 18th June 1886 when she would have been 22 years of age. Phillip was the son of Patrick Foran and Ellen Grady.

Let's have a look at Phillip's family first.

The Forans

Patrick Foran and Ellen Grady

Patrick Foran had been born in Ireland. The Colonial Secretary's papers outlined his convict history:

FORAN, Patrick. Per "Minerva", 1819

1819 Dec 30

On list of convicts disembarked from the "Minerva" and forwarded to Parramatta for distribution (Reel 6007; 4/3501 p.145)

William Lawson was the Lawson of Blaxland, Wentworth and Lawson who were the first Europeans to cross the Blue Mountains. Between 1819 and 1824 Lawson was in Bathurst as its commandant. He retired to Veteran Hill Prospect in 1825 so if the William Lawson of Prospect mentioned above. <https://adb.anu.edu.au/biography/lawson-william-2338> and <https://www.spathaky.name/prospecthill/places/veteran.htm>

The Rockley Manner , his death certificate and grave information tells us Patrick Foran was the son of Cornelius Foran and Margaret Hogan of Tipperary Ireland. Patrick was born at Clonmel Tipperary about 1797. Patrick's on Pat's Ticket of Leave [31st July 1828] tells us he was convicted and sentenced to Life at Waterford City in Lent 1819 which would have been between February and April. The Settler and Convict lists confirm it was in fact March 1819 when he was convicted. He is described as 5 feet 10 inches, with light brown hair, grey eyes and a fresh complexion. The Rockley Manner states this was for burglary and highway robbery. He would go on to receive a conditional pardon on 21st November 1835. However, Pat also known as Patrick Evander Foran did not remain out of gaol in NSW. He was charged and found guilty of maliciously shooting the dog of James Burgess and ill treating his servant boy. He was convicted and ordered to be flogged with 100 lashes and be on bread and water for a week. It was hoped this would improve his conduct. He was then sent back to his employee, Mr Lawson. He was listed as being incorrigible. See the excerpt below from Colonial Secretarys Papers 3rd August 1822 from Bench of Magistrates Parramatta.

The above record indicates that there was a mistake in citing the ship Ellen came out on, it was in fact the City of Edinburgh not the Brampton. Ellen Grady, age 16, departed Cork, Ireland on the 23 Jun 1828, on board the convict transport “City of Edinburgh”, arriving in the Colony of NSW on 12 Nov 1828. She came with her mother, Margaret, 2 brothers ,James age 13 & Patrick age 5 & 2 sisters, Judith age 12 & Mary age 10. The family came ‘free’ to join their father, who had been transported to the colony in 1823..he had been sentenced to Life. Ref: NSW Records Immigration Reel 2420. Thank you to family history from micah6.

As Pat Foran was a convict he needed to apply for permission to marry Ellen who was a free settler. See below.

Patrick Foran	32	19 th Minerva 3	Life	St. Mary's	S. Neave
Ellen Grady	17	Brampton	Free	Free	Bathurst

Their marriage certificate indicates they were married on 10th July 1829 in the Parish of St Mary's. It does not indicate whether it is Sydney or Bathurst. Margaret Grady and Michael Moran of Sydney were witnesses.

Patrick Snr received a Conditional Pardon on 21st November 1835 and was it again in 1839 as indicated by the newspaper article or did it take 4 years to be finalised? Did something happen in between these years ie another conviction to warrant 2 conditional pardon periods?

Patrick and Ellen had 11 children:

1. Margaret Foran – born 10th Sept 1830 Macquarie Plains. Margaret married Richard Cornelius Wilcox on 10th April 1855 . They had 6 children:

Margaret died on 29th January 1908 and is buried Oberon. Her grave information confirms her father's name as Patrick Evander Foran.

Some family trees have the next child as Jullia Foran but there is no primary evidence to support this and some trees have Julia as Johanna. I have chosen to leave Julia out at this stage as a second child.

2. Mary Foran - born 1st February 1832 at Macquarie Plains. She married George Lewis in 1857 at Bathurst. They went on to have 10 children:

The Rockley Manner page 105 tells us that Patrick Joseph Foran was a “bushranger” of sorts just like his father was in Ireland. Patrick Joseph Foran and James Kelly joined forces in a spate of armed robbery. In 1866 Patrick was under suspicion of stealing a horse from John Mackie. At the time he was “28 years old 5’7” high, dark brown hair and whiskers, one eye defective; well known to the Bullock Flat (Oberon) and Bathurst police.” He was also convicted of robbery against John Marsh. In 1867 Lawrence Cummings, James Kelly and Patrick robbed William Whittacker’s Half Way House on the Carcoar road. Kelly and Foran were arrested and given 10 years each. While being transported to Sydney with 13 other prisoners there was an attempted escape. Prisoners Rutherford and Holmes did escape but were soon recaptured. Patrick received a conditional pardon in 1874. See April 23rd 1867 Empire article below and Sydney Morning Herald 23rd April 1867 rendition of the trial.

BATHURST CIRCUIT COURT. (Abridged from the Free Press.)

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17TH.

BEFORE His Honor Mr. Justice FAUCETT.

BURBANKING.—ROBBERY WITH ARMS.

James Kelly and Patrick Foran were indicted for robbery with firearms, at the Half-way House, on the Carcoar Road, on the 31st January, 1867.

The prisoners pleaded not guilty, and were defended by Mr. Stephen.

On the jury being called, seven out of the first twelve were challenged; and some time elapsed before the requisite number of men, "good and true" in the estimation of the prisoners, could be found.

The Crown Prosecutor opened the case, and described in particular the circumstances of the robbery. It was committed by four persons. Every satisfactory evidence would be produced as to the identity of the two prisoners at the bar, especially of the prisoner Foran. His learned friend would perhaps attempt to prove an alibi; but the jury would be able to judge for themselves.

Sergeant Grainger, being called, deposed: Am sergeant of police; I arrested Kelly on the 2nd July, about 2 o'clock in the morning, at Tea Pot Swamp, a week after on the Saturday, about 4 o'clock in the morning, at Fish River Creek, I arrested Foran.

Oliver Sherman deposed: I remember the evening when Whittaker's place was robbed, 31st January; before that I was robbed myself; I was going up the Mount, and was taken into the bush; the robbers had firearms, a third man came up, a fourth came on, and I was with others taken into the bush; the four men had several of us in the bush; we were there, say two hours; two of them were disguised; about 7 o'clock I got as far as Whittaker's; I believe that the same men were at Whittaker's as robbed me; one stood in the road, and two of them in the verandah, and in the doorway; about thirty or more were bailed up in the house; candles were lit; there was no light outside but the light of the lamp; I remarked that the men had the same dresses and the same horses, and one I knew in particular, and respecting Kelly, I observed his hair, and that he had a felt hat and a white shirt; he had no coat on; I saw him twice off his horse, and I recognise him; I have no doubt that he is the man; I heard him speak then, not since; I did not see his full face; I recognised him when at the police court, as to the other prisoner, I can only say that one of the men was similar in general appearance to Foran at the bar; I saw the robbers go away from Whittaker's; they had five or six horses; one was a tall grey horse, a pack horse; they had also a black horse; I was stopped first by a short man and I believe Kelly was near him.

To a juror. The men's eyes were not covered.

Witness called. I believe Kelly was near him.

To a juror. The men's eyes were not covered.

William Whittaker deposed: I am a publican, and reside on the Carcoar Road, my house was robbed on the 31st December; I was not at home when the robbers came, but came home while they were there, and when I went in I was robbed of £55a by one of the men; I saw two men; they were armed—one with a double-barrelled gun, and the other a revolver; it was not dark when I got home; I saw three men outside and one inside, they were all armed; there were over forty persons bailed up inside; they took £100 in notes, and 30 ounces of gold, and £10 in silver from my house, they went into the store, and I missed some things from the store, the boots produced were taken from the bar; I saw them going away; they had four horses and a pack horse; the pack horse was a grey; they got two bottles of pale brandy and two bottles of old tom; when I rode up I recognised prisoner Foran; I had known him for several years; he had been shot, and was lying at M'Donnell's house, next door to me, and I saw him almost every day; that was was about five years ago; I have seen him frequently since then; I have been on the Carcoar Road about one year and nine months; I have not seen him for the last two years; he was armed with two revolvers; I mentioned the name to a person in the bar, he had a poncho on, and asked me for a pin to fasten it; he came close to the counter, and fastened the poncho, and I then saw his face; I noticed a peculiarity in his right eye.

and fastened the poncho, and I then saw his face; I noticed a peculiarity in his right eye. [The prisoner Foran was here taken out of the dock to the jury box that they might examine his face.] I noticed the mark on the eye that I see now; I did not tell him that I recognised him; I have not the slightest doubt as to his identity; I will not swear positively to Kelly, but I observed that one of the men was like him—tall, and had a stoop in his shoulders; I had seen him three times at my house; I did not recognise his voice at the time; I heard him speak on the Saturday after the robbery, and I believe it was the voice I had heard at my house; judging from Kelly's appearance I really believe he was one of the robbers; I was near the man supposed to be Kelly after the robbery; he had a poncho on at the time; I took it to be a cabbage-tree hat he had on; I did not see a man with a white shirt on.

Mrs. Whittaker deposed: My husband keeps the Half-way House; I remember the night of the robbery; I saw one of the robbers inside; I also saw two outside when I got out of the baggy; I did not know any of the men when I first went in; I afterwards recognised the man at the door with two revolvers; the disguise dropped down from his face, and I noticed a mark on his eye and knew him to be Foran; I had known him some years before when he was ill at Mr. Donnell's house; I know Foran independently of the mark on his eye; I did not know him until the crape fell off his eye; I recognised him by his features and the manner in which he went about the place; he is the man who stood at the door with the revolvers; I know his voice that night and his general appearance; I knew he was one of the robbers, but I did not know his Christian name; I knew him to be the man who had been at Mr. M'Donnell's; I next saw him at the Court House and noticed the mark on his eye; I cannot swear to Kelly, but there was a man there like him; I saw him on the Saturday following, and believe he was one of the men; I noticed the hair of that man on the night of the robbery, and also that he had stooped as Kelly does.

To Mr. Stephen. I had seen Kelly before, but it did not strike me that he was the person on the night of the robbery; I heard the man speak on that night, but did not recognise his voice; I gave evidence some time after my husband had given his evidence; the scar on the eye did not help me to recognise Foran on the night of the robbery; I had noticed his walk at M'Donnell's, and I also noticed it at my house; the crape fell from the forehead of Foran, but it did not fall below his nose and mouth; I could not see his mouth at the time.

James Smith deposed: I live at Reedy Creek, about four miles from Whittaker's; there is a road passing my place from Whittaker's to Kelly's; I saw Kelly in custody the day after I heard of the robbery; I saw four men and five horses passing my house on the morning of the day I heard of the robbery; they were riding a grey horse; that was between 5 and 6 o'clock in the morning; Kelly was one of those men; he had on a peacoat and a pair of dark trousers strapped with twined; there were some things on the pack horse; Kelly's face was then covered; I saw them on the bridge crossing the creek near my place; they were coming from the direction of the Half-way House, and going towards Kelly's; I have known him from an infant, and cannot say that he was one of the four men; I did not know the horses they were riding; I had seen the horse Kelly was riding before, and have seen it since; I used to see Kelly two or three times a week; I could not be mistaken in Kelly.

The whole of the witnesses were examined by ten minutes past 12 o'clock a.m., and Mr. Stephen then addressed the jury for the defence, and for fifty minutes occupied their attention in deprecating upon the evidence which had been adduced for the prosecution, and for the defence. He concluded an eloquent and powerful address at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Butler addressed the jury in reply.

His Honor pointed out the duty of the jury in trying such cases, and recapitulated and commented upon the evidence for and against the prisoners. His Honor concluded his address to the jury at half-past 2 o'clock p.m., and the jury retired to consider their verdict. At 3 o'clock the jury returned into Court with a verdict of guilty against both the retired to consider their verdict. At 3 o'clock the jury returned into Court with a verdict of guilty against both the prisoners, who were remanded for sentence; and His Honor, after a few expressions of regret that the jurors and witnesses should have been delayed so long, adjourned the Court until 10 o'clock.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18TH.

James Kelly and Patrick Foran, convicted of robbery with arms, were brought up for judgment.

His Honor, in passing sentence, spoke in strong terms upon the enormity of the crime of the prisoners. He perfectly coincided with the verdict of the jury, and did not see how they could have arrived at any other conclusion than that the prisoners were guilty. If they were guilty, they had been instrumental in inducing a number of individuals to commit perjury in order to clear them, and great as was the crime of highway robbery, the defence they had set up and the mode of establishing that defence were still more enormous. They had rendered themselves liable by their offence to fifteen years' hard labour on the roads or other public works of the colony. However, he (his Honor) was desirous of giving them an opportunity of retrieving themselves at a future period, and would not, therefore, impose the full penalty of the law. The sentence of the Court was that they should both pass ten years in hard labour on the roads or other public works of the colony.

The prisoners both protested their innocence, and said the time might come when they would be proved innocent.

His Honor said if that time should arrive, he would at once report the case to the Executive, and recommend their immediate liberation.

4. Johanna Foran- family tree references have her born at Davys Creek in 1831, others in 1836. A death certificate Registration # 6644 for Julia Murphy daughter of Patrick and Ellen who died at Rockley links her to marriage with John Murphy. This record however lists her death year as 1916. She was buried on 6th November 1915 according to NSW Vital Newspaper notices. The headstone however cites her death as 9th June 1916 and she is buried with John Murphy who died 7th Feb 1929, Mary Murphy who died 25th May 1916 and Daniel Murphy who died Jan 19th 1955. Cornelius like his brothers got into trouble with the law also. The Rockley Manner [pge 106] tells us In 1867 Cornelius and James Humphries were suspects on a charge of arson against Eneas McDonald near Taralga. Earlier in February Cornelius had been arrested for the suspected involvement in the robbery at the Half Way House Carcoar. He, along with his brother John were released on bail while Patrick received his 10 years. It seems that Con may have been deterred by his near brushes with the law as there seems to be no other reports on him. The article below from Sydney Morning Herald [SMH] 8th October 1867 seems to contradict this even by a Chinaman."

CONVICTION FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERY WITH ARMS.
 —At the Orange Quarter Sessions on the 1st instant, before District Judge Carey, Thomas O'Neill was indicted, for robbing and putting in bodily fear, one Eliza Oates, at Guyong, on 5th June, 1867, in company with Cornelius Foran, taking from her, the sum of £7. Prisoner pleaded not guilty, and was defended by Mr. Long, instructed by Mr. James. Samuel Edwards, being duly sworn, deposed: I live at Guyong; I was at Oates's public-house, at Guyong, on the evening of the 5th June; William Oates, Samuel Oates, William Johns, and myself, were sitting by the fire between 8 and 9 o'clock, when Jenner came in and said something; prisoner and a companion, in about ten to fifteen minutes, came to the house and one of them ordered us out on to the verandah; on going to the door I saw each was armed; we went to the verandah and were ordered to one end by the prisoner and told to turn our faces to the wall; I did so for a second and then looked round and was told by prisoner to turn round again; at this time his companion had gone inside; he afterwards came out and took us all into the dining room; we turned our faces to the wall and prisoner stood sentry at the room door; the other man demanded the money, and Mr. Oates said he had none; he then called for a light and told the girl to show him into the bedroom; prisoner stood in the doorway between two lights; he remained there ten minutes; after prisoner's companion came out of the bedroom we were taken one by one into the bar and searched; prisoner was not disguised; I have no hesitation in saying he was the man. Jane Graham, being duly sworn, deposed: I am in the employ of William Oates, of Guyong; I was living there when the bushrangers came in June; I knew one of them (Foran) from having lived near to where he previously resided; I first saw the man in the bar, and at once knew him; I had not seen the other man before to my knowledge; the men remained about half an hour; they were not disguised; I next saw the person that was with Foran, in the gaol yard; when I saw him, I said, without being asked, "That's the man;" Foran made me show him the bedroom, which he entered and took some money; I have no doubt prisoner is the man. Cross-examined: I had a good opportunity of seeing both men — Foran in the bedroom, the other man in the bar; Foran's companion was dressed in shepherd's plaid trousers, dark coat, and cabbage-tree hat; he had a little whisker and beard; I believe Foran's name is Cornelius; he is rather tall, and has light hair; I knew him on the Fish River; I never saw prisoner before that night; I saw him in the bar, and at the dining-room door; there were other men in the gaol when I recognised prisoner, but I did not notice how many; prisoner's front prisoner, but I did not notice how many; prisoner's front face was toward me in the bar; I did not previously swear that the only sight I had of prisoner in the bar was his side face (deposition put in and read). Other evidence was given in corroboration of the above, and the prisoner, being found guilty, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment, with hard labour.

Did Cornelius or his companion Thomas O'Neill receive the 10 years hard labour? It does not indicate that Cornelius was indicted.

THE CARCOAR-ROAD BUSHRANGERS.—The police apprehended three other young men, all brothers, named Patrick, John and Cornelius Foran, upon the charge of being concerned with James Kelly, already under arrest, in committing the late robberies upon the Carcoar-road. On Monday, and yesterday, they were brought before the police magistrate, and the case was investigated with closed doors, Mr M'Intosh appearing on behalf of the prisoners. For certain reasons, the evidence of the witnesses is at present withheld from publication. Two of the prisoners, however, are positively identified by one witness; and another witness distinctly recognises one of these two, but is not certain as to the other, though he believes him to be one of the robbers. There appears to be no doubt that the escaped convict Cummings was one of the marauders, but he is still at large. It is rumored that he accidentally shot himself in the hand, and is so disabled as to be compelled to lie in concealment; so that, whether captured or not, he is not likely to take to the road again for some time to come.—Bathurst Times, February 13.

Police Gazette 1873

A family history follows from the handcocks:

JOHN, son of PATRICK FORAN and ELLEN (nee GRADY), was born in 1846. Of the Foran brothers John seemed more determined to make his mark in the world. For almost two years he was constantly defying the law. In December 1865, he was convicted at Rockley, of illegally using a horse - receiving 3 months imprisonment. Until 1867 he was comparatively quiet but in April of that year he and Lawrence Cumming were suspected of stealing a horse from William Bromielow (probably Brownlow). On April 4, William Todd of Stoney Creek was robbed of an amount of money. A description of one of the men fitted that of John Foran. Later that same month both Cummings and Foran held up an Inn Keeper, Edward Lock, at Dirty Swamp, near Mutton Falls. The Bathurst Times covered in detail, an account of this robbery on April 17, 1867. From there Foran and Cummings proceeded to Webb's store at Mutton Falls where their approach was noticed and Cummings was shot in the face. On May 15 1867, Holmes and Foran (probably John), stole two horses, and then on the 29th May they were suspected of arson on Mr Lock's shed at Dirty Swamp. October 18, John was once again convicted of three charges of robbery with arms and sentenced to 15 years on the road gangs, serving between six and seven years before receiving a conditional pardon.

JOHN married Catherine English in 1877 and had 12 children. His granddaughter, Irene Mayer of Bathurst said he worked hard during his marriage as did his wife and family. It would seem that John had learned his lesson while in prison as Irene said he was "extra - extra" honest in his later life. At one stage John and Catherine lived at Foley's Creek, after indulging in a few drinks, John argued with Catherine, waving a candle around as he argued, the curtains caught fire and it wasn't long before the thatched cottage was consumed by fire. Thankfully their quarters were in three separate buildings. John also kept a pet crow, a magpie and a fox. The fox was short lived after it escaped and beheaded Catherine's hens. Irene and her sister knew that John had a reputation as a cranky man but they saw no sight in it themselves. John always carried boiled lollies in his pockets for his grandchildren, complete with pieces of tobacco and fluff.

Catherine had a hard life, she reared 10 of her own children besides several of their grandchildren. When she could get to Mass she had to walk some distance. She hated to see anything killed and at one time when John was away she was forced to kill a sheep for eating. She cried all the way through the process. John died in 1923 at the age of 77 years and Catherine in 1931 at the age of 75 years. Both are buried in Oberon cemetery.

Those 12 children were:

- Michael Foran 1877-1932
- Patrick Foran 1877-1966
- Mary Ann Foran 1878-1954
- Margaret Foran 1880-1905
- Phillip Foran 1883-1950

- Johannah Foran 1892-1957
- Ellen Foran 1894-1983 and
- Joseph Sylvester Foran 1897-1972

9. Phillip Joseph Foran- the youngest child and husband of Agnes Cash. Phillip was born on 5th July 1849 at Kings Creek Brewongle NSW. Phillip did not escape the law either. In 1865 he was charged with stealing a saddle and imprisoned at Bathurst for 2 months. In 1868 he was convicted again of stealing a saddle and on 30th Sept 1868 at Bathurst was sentenced to 12 months gaol. He was described at the time as 19 years of age, of slight build, in good health, literate with good conduct. He was a labourer, gold miner. He had also been accused of stealing tools from David Todd , father of his brother's wife. In October 1872 he was charged with deserting his child. Given he married Agnes in 1886 this child was illegitimate and this probably represents a charge laid by the mother in support of the child. He was 23 years old. In June 1873 he again ran amuck of the law when charged with feloniously and burglariously entering the House of Hamlet Pollett. He was also charged with impersonating a Police Constable! He was fined. The Police Gazette of 17th Dec 1873 shows Phillip was also charged with assault on the said Hamlet Pollett and he was convicted and sentenced to 6 months hard labour at Bathurst gaol. He was 24 years of age.

Deserting Wives and Families, Service, &c.

A warrant has been issued by the Bathurst Bench, for the arrest of Philip Foran, charged with deserting his child. He is 23 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, swarthy complexion, dark brown hair, the index finger of both hands have only two joints, most of the other fingers are crooked; dressed in dark-coloured clothes; a native of King's Creek; a labourer. Supposed to have gone to Campbell's River or King's Creek.

Agnes Cash and Phillip Joseph Foran's Family:

Agnes and Phillip were married at St Peters Church Rockley on 18th June 1886. At the time Phillip is listed as a bachelor farmer of Kings Creek. Agnes was from Stony Creek. Mary Ann's younger sister Emma Amelia Smith was a witness.

Agnes and Phillip had 8 children:

1. John Walter Foran – born 14th Dec 1886 so Agnes was pregnant when she married Phillip. He married Ada Ainsworth at Glebe Sydney in 1912. He served in WW1 in the AIF. He joined on 12th October 1917. His wife is listed as Ada and they live at 1 Cardigan St Glebe. He is five foot five and half inches, 9 stone 7 lbs of fair complexion with blue eyes and brown hair. He is Roman Catholic. He was based at Victoria Barracks and assigned on 16th October 1917 to Engineer Depot Moore Park. He was part of Engineer Reinforcements 2nd MD. He left Australia on the HMT Canberra on 16/11/1917. He disembarked at Suez on 21st December 1917 then Port Said on 12.1.1918. He then went to Southampton UK on 30.1.1918 and returned to Australia 23rd Sept 1918 for discharge. His war record indicates he committed an offence in Suez with conduct prejudicial to the good order and military discipline -his offence? He appeared late on parade! Ada and John Walter had two children :
  - o Jean Margaret Foran born 1915 according to family trees [annestev]
  - o John T Foran died 1928 in Redfern. NSW BDM Registration # 17877

Ada Foran died on 28th April 1918. This would have been before John Walter returned from the war. She is buried at Rookwood cemetery. He remarried in Newtown NSW on 1919 to a Nellie Hicks BDM # 8003. She was also known as Ellen Theresa Brown so we know the date of marriage is 31st May.

By 1928 he too was charged with deserting his child. Family tree annestve indicate this charge was brought by Jean Margaret Foran who would have been 13 years of age.

John Walter Foran was living in Goulburn from 1930 according to the Electoral Rolls. In 1930 he is quarryman living at 24 Reynolds St but no sign of Nellie. From her death certificate we know she died in 1959 so where was she? In 1934 he is a quarryman and his address is c/o J Phillips Emma St Goulburn. Family trees indicate he was also known as John William Foran and he died at Young on 9th January 1951 although we do not have primary evidence for this. A search of NSW death records did not sbhow any death certificate for John Walter Foran in 1951.

Bathurst.—A warrant has been issued by the Bathurst Bench for the arrest of JOHN WALTER FORAN, charged with child desertion. He is 41 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, medium build, dark complexion and hair, blue eyes, clean shaved, noticeable burn scars on neck and ears, left eye defective and ears shrivelled the result of burns; slovenly dressed; a labourer. May go to Mando, Cadia or Orange. Complainant, Jean Phillip Richard died on 8th Sept 1980 at Black Springs NSW. He is buried at Oberon cemetery. Ena died on 6th November 1973 and is also buried at Oberon cemetery.

4. Agnes Mary Foran [known as May] born 31st Aug 1893 at Bathurst. She married Frederick Charles Bundy on 12th June 1915 at Chatswood Sydney. They had 10 children according to Fred obituary we only know details on 7:

- Frederick Phillip Keith Bundy [1916-1941] he died in Indian ocean on 20th November 1941 on HMAS Sydney. This event was the greatest naval tragedy Australia had experienced and the ship Sydney had disappeared in 1941. It wasn't until 2008 that it was found. The Sydney had been returning home from a successful battle in the Mediterranean when she was fired upon by the German ship Kormoran which was disguised as a Dutch merchant vessel. 645 men-all hands were lost on the Sydney including Frederick. Agnes Foran Bundy died on 17th September 1983 in Roseville NSW. She is buried at Macquarie Park Cemetery and Crematorium North Ryde Sydney. Her husband Frederick Bundy died March 29th 1958 at their residence 24 Atchison St Crows Nest.

5. Mary Kathleen Foran born 14th March 1896 Oberon. She married John William Harris in 1921 at Annandale Sydney [BDM Ref 14790]. Electoral Roll of 1930 has the family living at Balmain East. On family tree Kate Flynn states he was formerly known as Charles McDonald Clark although cannot find further detail on this. There are divorce papers between a Charles McDonald Clark and Nellie Clark in 1920 and these do not indicate an alias of John William Harris. Charles Clark deserted his wife and 2 children in Victoria and went to war! John Harris's death certificate lists his father as Frederick Harris of Donald Victoria. It does not list a child named Susan so we don't know who Kathleen's obit refers to. No mention of an alias of other marriage and children.

Kathleen and John had 5 children:

- Maxwell Phillip Harris also known as Clark/Harris by a family tree [1921-2015]
- Clifford John Harris [1922-1980]
- Sylvia Harris [born 1925]
- Donald Harris [born 1935]
- Susan Harris – possible child from Kathleen's obit.

Mary Kathleen died 19th April 1975 at Concord NSW. Kathleen is buried with her son Cliff at Field of Mars Sydney. John died at Concord Repat Hospital of lung cancer on 30th Sept. 1952. He was cremated.

Child 3: Lucy Ann Cash and John Donley

Lucy Ann Cash was born at Davey's Creek on 17th January 1866. She went on to marry John Donley also spelt Donnelly on 18th June 1886 at St Patricks Roman Catholic Church Rockley. John was the son of Edward Donley and Honorah Moore.

The Donleys: Edward Donley and Honorah Moore

An Oberon cousin descended from Lucy Ann has said:

"Edward Donley came on the Eliza in 1832. Donley is the correct way of spelling the Surname even though it appears spelt Donnelly in the Indexes. Edward was transported as Donley, John is buried Donley, Emily married as Donley and all her siblings D/Cs have it as Donley. Edward was transported for stealing a cow. He was from County Cork Ireland and is buried in an unmarked grave with his wife and two of their four children at the old RC Cemetery O'Connell. Edward owned 40 acres in the Parish of Baring. Edward married Honorah Moore who migrated with her father James in 1856 being sponsored by their sister/daughter Johanna's husband John English. You will find them in the Rockley Manner and this family was in the Rockley and The Lagoon area. "

"Edward was transported on "Eliza" 6 arriving 6th September 1832 from Cork Ireland. He was tried 25th March 1832 at Cork for cow stealing and received 7 years. He was aged 31, a Roman Catholic, married from Cork and occupation listed as ploughs, reaps and sows. Edward did not read or write, was 5'5 3/4" in height of fallow complexion and freckled. He had sandy brown hair, hazel eyes a small mole on his right jaw: another on the right side of his chin and a front tooth on the right side upper jaw was broken..... From the Convict Employers Index 1832-1833 Edward is listed as a convict that ploughs assigned to John West Bathurst 5 Dec 1832"

Ref: Certificate of Freedom 40/1423

Edward died from Influenza. Date of death and date of burial do not coincide with death notice in the paper which is dated 4th Nov 1891. Edward is also shown as 101 and written up as a centenarian however it appears he was probably only approximately 91 as he continually changed his age as per Marriage and Childrens Birth Certificates. This was probably done to cover up the fact he was a convict. Date of birth shown on his Certificate of Freedom is 1801. Also in his son John's Obituary 1922, he is said to have been brought from Ireland to manage "Charlton" for Arkell. However, he is shown on all Birth and Death Certificates as a shepherd or boundary rider. He is also shown as a widow (1836 with one child deceased) on his marriage to Honora in 1856.

In addition we know from family historians that Edward was the son of James Donley and Catherine Higgins of Cork Ireland. Edward died on 30th November 1891 and was buried on 1st December 1891. He had been a boundary rider, farmer and shepherd during his life. Honorah Moore was born around 1831 in Ireland the daughter of James Moore and Mary Johnson.

Edward and Honorah had 4 children

- Mary Ann Donley born 12th July 1857 Mount Stromboli near Charlton. She died on 21st May 1877 at Brisbane Valley Creek and was buried on 23rd May 1877 at St Joseph's Roman Catholic Cemetery O'Connell. Mary Ann was 19 years of age.
- James Donley born 15th Dec 1858 at Brisbane Valley Creek and baptised on 22nd Feb 1859. He died on 2nd Sept 1860 at Brisbane Valley Creek. He was no quite 2 years old.
- Edward Donley born 24th February 1864 Brisbane Valley Creek and baptised on 9th March of that year. He died at Native Dog Creek Essington on 11th December 1878 aged 14 yrs and is buried at St Josephs cemetery OConnell

- John Donley was born 16th March 1861 at Brisbane Valley Creek and was the only child to marry and produce Donley heirs. John married Lucy Ann Cash on 16th June 1886 at St Patricks Church Rockley. She was noted as living with her parents and he a farmer.

MARRIAGE REGISTERED IN NEW SOUTH WALES, AUSTRALIA.

CERTIFIED COPY FURNISHED UNDER PART V OF THE REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS, DEATHS AND MARRIAGES ACT, 1973

Lucy Ann and John had 7 children:

- Hanorah Mary Donley [born Brisbane Valley Creek 1886], She married Arthur E Schofield at St Ignatius Church Oberon. Ref: Transcribed from church records by Irene Birch in 1980's lists marriage of Hanorah Mary Donley parents John Donley and Lucy Ann Cash to Arthur Ernest Schofield 21/2/1906. They had 2 children
  - Harold Ernest Schofield born 1906
  - Myrtle Rubina Scholfield born 1908
- Thomas Edward Donley born 1889 at Brisbane Valley Creek . He married Caroline Agnes Johnson on 18th August 1909 at St Ignatius Church Oberon. Thomas and Caroline had 3 boys:
  - Augustus Ambrose Donley born 1911 and according to family historians he was considered simple. After his mother died her family raised Augustus.
  - Thomas Edward Donley born 1914 in Oberon and died in 1936 at Hornsby. Family historians note he died of broncho pneumonia at Peat and Milson Islands Hornsby NSW.
  - John William Donley born and died at Essington 1915.

Caroline and Thomas were working on Essington Park in 1913 according to the electoral rolls.

Caroline died on 15th April 1919 at Arundel Park Oberon and she is buried in the old Roman Catholic cemetery at Oberon. Family historians note Caroline's family were in the Essington area after coming from New Zealand, they are all buried in the Old RC Cemetery Oberon NSW.

Thomas remarried on 6th June 1931 in Wellington NSW to Amy Ethel Birchall [1909-?]. They went on to have a further 8 children: Mary, May, Josie, Jean, Edna, John, Jim and Richard according to Thomas obituary. He died on Australia Day 26th January 1956 aged 67.

3. John Richard Donley born 14th March 1891 at Brisbane Valley Creek and baptised that year on 24th March at St Ignatius Church Oberon. [ref: cousin Lynn of Oberon from primary records]. The 1934 electoral roll has him living in Norway as a grazier with a wife Grace Wilhelmina [Warby] and possibly a son Augustine. We know he married Grace Warby on 13th Feb 1913 at St Ignatius Church Oberon. Nothing is known of Augustine. Grace's death index lists a daughter Hazel J Donley. We know Grace was the daughter of William Edward Henry Warby [1858-1932] and Margaret Jane Hewitt [1864-1943] born at Essington on 19th Sept 1893. Warby's owned land in the region and were considered by my father to have stolen Smith land at Native Dog Creek. I probably think unfairly bought is more like it. Family historians have John and Grace having 7 children:

- Norman Herbert Donley born 2nd October 1913 at Oberon
- Hazel Jean Donley born 19th August 1915 and died on 1st May 1921 at Oberon.
- Elma Donley born 17th December 1918
- Lloyd Donley born 8th April 1924
- Doris Donley born 18th February 1928
- Winifred Donley born 16th December 1930
- Augustine Donley

The 1943 electoral roll has John Richard and Grace living at Hydes Creek near Bellingen. John Richard died suddenly at Hydes Creek on 20th November 1944 and was buried on 22nd Nov 1944 at Roman Catholic Cemetery Bellingen . Medical and police assistance were called, and after examining the reports of these officers the acting district coroner dispensed with an inquiry. Charles Richard Cash was born in 1869 at Wisemans Creek [BDM # 6646]. He married Rebecca Agnes Todd daughter of Luin Todd and Sarah Bellamy. Luin Todd was brother of David Smith Todd. They were married on 15th July 1900 in the Wesleyan Church at Stoney Creek. They had one child:

M'Glynn, H. E. Jones, Geo. Price, and others.

A wedding was celebrated on July 15 in the Wesleyan Church at Stoney Creek, near Bathurst, when Miss Rebecca Agnes Todd, daughter of Mr. Luin Todd, Wiseman's Creek, was married to Mr. Charles Richard Cash, son of Mr. Thomas Cash, of Essington. The church was tastefully decorated for the ceremony, and crowded by many friends of the bride and bridegroom. The service was conducted at 11 o'clock in the morning by Rev. M. Scott Fletcher, B.A., of Oberon. The bride was attired in white figured chene silk trimmed with pearl passementerie and white chiffon, and wore an embroidered veil and orange blossoms. She had as bridesmaids her sister (Miss Gertrude Todd), who was dressed in white figured muslin and pink chiffon; Miss Millie and Miss Fanny Cash, sisters of the bridegroom, both of whom wore black velvet relieved with white satin trimmings, and large picture hats. The bridegroom was supported by his brother (Mr. Thomas Cash) and Mr. Herbert Todd, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the bridal party, accompanied by the guests, numbering about sixty in all, adjourned to the home of the bride's parents, and sat down to a wedding luncheon in a marquee erected for the occasion.

Newspaper report. Inquest into Woman's Death
It has been decided to hold an inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Daisy Martin, of Wilkins Street, Bathurst. Mrs Martin, who was 27 years of age, died in Bathurst on Friday last, and was buried the following day. The inquest is to be held by the Bathurst Coroner (Mr. A.B. Burgess) at 10 o'clock on Thursday Morning.

Inquiry On Young Mother's Death
The Bathurst Coroner (Mr. A.B. Burgess) yesterday held an inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the death on May 28 of Mrs. Daisy Martin (27) of Wilkins Street, the mother of five children. He found that she died from septicemia following an abortion but how or by what means such abortion was caused the evidence did not enable him to say.

Detective Constable J.W. Bunnell said when he saw Mrs Martin in Bathurst Hospital he told her he had come to see what made her so sick.

She said she was playing with her young daughter and the two eldest boys on the front steps on her home on May 25, and they were all humping from the top step to the ground. She said there were four or five steps. she said she felt all right after playing with the children but after she prepared tea, she started to haemorrhage and she went to bed. she did not do anything to prevent herself from having the baby.

The deceased's dying depositions were taken by the chamber magistrate on May 27, said witness. Dr R.D. Mulvey, Government medical officer, said death was due to a septicemic condition, consequent on an abortion in the second month of pregnancy. It was unlikely that the happening could have been brought about by a fall.

HUSBAND'S EVIDENCE

Thomas Francis Martin, wardsman at the District Hospital and husband of the deceased, said his wife appeared to be in her usual health when he left home for work on May 25. when he returned about 2 pm on May 26, his wife was in bed, and complained of a severe headache and pains in the back. He asked if he would get a doctor, and she replied. "No, I think I will be all right after a rest." The pains became worse, and at 5 pm he called a doctor. He told deceased to remain in bed and keep warm, and to let him know if she did not get any better. She did not improve, and the doctor, when called again, ordered her to hospital. Her condition became worse and she died about 3 am on May 28.

EVIDENCE AT BATHURST INQUEST

An inquest was held at B'ham yesterday by the Coroner, Mr. A. B. Burgess on Mrs. Daisy Martin, 12 Wilkins Street, who died in the District Hospital last Friday.

A verdict was returned that Mrs. Martin died of septicemia, following means this was caused the evidence an abortion, but how, is by what did not enable the court to say.

Deceased, who was 27 years of age, was the mother of five children, the eldest being ten years of age.

Det. Const. Bunnell said he interviewed the deceased in hospital and she told him she and her children were jumping from the top step on to the ground at her home. There were about four or five steps. She had felt all right just after that but after tea that night a hemorrhage set in. She thought if she went to bed and rested she might get better as there had been signs of a hemorrhage on and off a number of times during the past few months. She said she had not done anything to cause the illness which she experienced later in the day.

Dr Mulvey said a post mortem revealed that death was due to a generalised septicaemia consequent on a happening in the early period of pregnancy. He did not consider it likely that the mishap could have been brought about by a fall.

The deceased's husband, Thomas Francis Martin, a wardener at the District Hospital said that on the afternoon of May 26 His wife was in her usual good health when he left home to go to work. He returned about 2 p.m. on May 26 and his wife who was in bed, complained of having severe headaches and pains in the back.

He asked if he would get a doctor and she said she thought she would be better after having a rest. However, as she showed no improvement he got a doctor about 3 p.m. and the doctor advised the deceased to remain in bed.

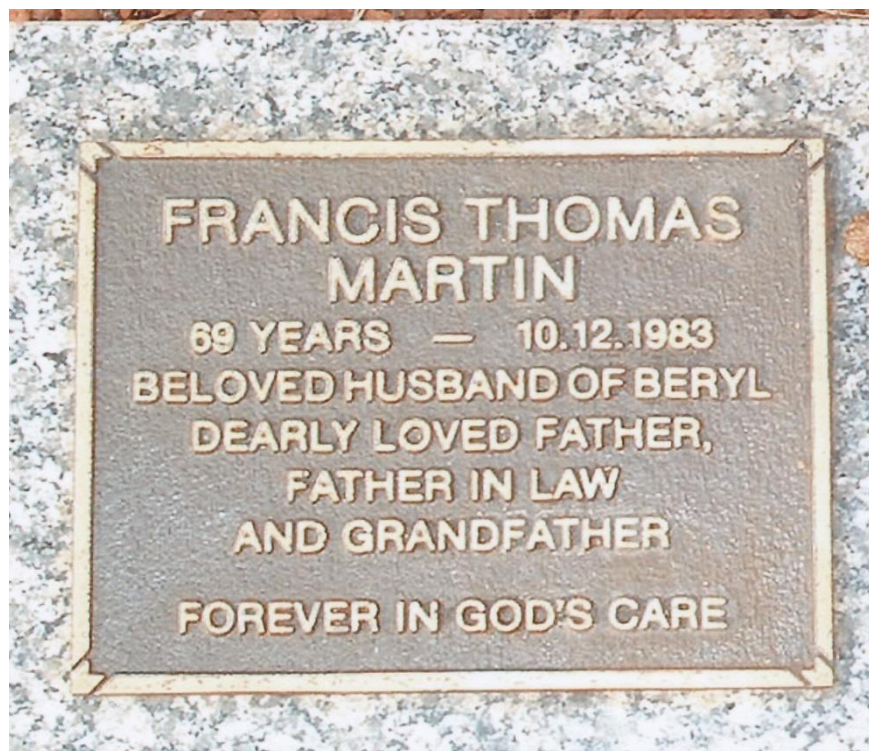

The pains became more severe and at 7:15 p.m. the doctor was called again and on his advice the patient was admitted to hospital. She died early the next morning. She had been anxious to have the child and, as far as witness knew had not done anything to prevent this.

His wife wanted to have the baby and, as far as he knew, she did not do anything herself, or allow anyone else to do anything to prevent her from having it.

How sad that Daisy had to die because in those times abortion was illegal. She was just 28 years old and left 6 little children for her husband to raise.

Francis remarried. His headstone indicates his second wife was named Beryl. The grave index lists Beryl as Beryl mavis and with the help of family trees we can say she was Beryl Mavis Duck who looks to be a divorcee having married David Joseph Stewart in 19327 and then Francis in 1951.

Francis appears to have another 3 children with Beryl. The first boy Francis Thomas Martin 1940-1940; Francis John Martin 1946-2012; Brian Edward Martin 1948-2020.

4. Horace Cash- a little man born and died in 1920. He is buried with Amy Gertrude at Bathurst Cemetery next to his little cousin Edward Mansell.

5. Spencer Thomas Cash born about 1922. The electoral rolls have him at Perthville in 1958 as a labourer, he is alone but the 1949 roll has him still at Perthville but there is an entry for Amy Gertrude of Perthville and Marie so it looks as if he is living at home. He dies in 1966. His gravesite inscription says he died 16th July 1966 aged 44 years.
